

Why Should We Give?
Luke 16:1-15
October 13, 2013

Read Luke 16:1-15

1. What is your reaction to this parable?
 - a. Confused, concerned, profound?
 - b. What values of God's heart do you discern from the parable?
2. What specific things in your life are you accountable to God as a steward for (to use them as God desires)?
 - a. Make your own list, then read the following verses
 - i. Ephesians 5:15-17, 1 Peter 4:10, 1 Thessalonians 2:4
 - b. How might God be calling you to do an inventory of your stewardship of the blessings that He has given you which made your list?
3. What is your greatest love?
 - a. How does your money, time, skills, and handling of the gospel reveal this?
 - i. Use Jesus' words in Mark 10:29-31 to help you in your evaluation
4. What opportunities do you have before you with:
 - a. Your finances?
 - b. Your time?
 - c. Your job\neighbourhood\situation\relationships?
 - d. Your gifts\skills?
 - e. Your Good News Message?

Scripture Memory:
Luke 16:9