

Compelled by Love
2 Corinthians 5:11-21
June 8, 2014

1. What is your motivation for following Jesus?
 - a. When you first began following Jesus what was your motivation?
 - b. What does Paul say his (and our) motivation for following Jesus is to be in the passage?

2. As a follower of Jesus, in what ways are you a new person\creation? (v.17)
 - a. What about your identity has changed?
 - b. What about your outlook on life has changed?
 - c. How do you see other people differently?
 - d. Where do you struggle to see things differently in how you live?
 - i. How can you apply the gospel to those areas\things and see as God sees?

3. Who are called to take up the ministry or task of reconciliation? (v.18-19)
 - a. What is the message of reconciliation?
 - b. How can you cooperate with God to bring the message of reconciliation in a greater way to those around you who follow Jesus?
 - c. How can you cooperate with God to bring the message of reconciliation in a greater way to those around you who don't follow Jesus?

4. Do you think of yourself as an ambassador of Christ?

Scripture Memorization:
2 Corinthians 5:20