

At the Centre - Anniversary Sunday
1 Corinthians 11:17-34 – June 14, 2015

1. What has been your journey of understanding the importance, meaning and practice of Communion?
  - a. Are there any questions or issues you still have that are unresolved about Communion?
2. If you were observing the Corinthian church observing the Lord's Supper, how would you describe it?
  - a. How is observing Communion as part of a meal different than how you usually observe Communion?
  - b. What reasons do you think the church had over the years in changing from the setting of meals to what you typically do today?
3. Have you ever been part of a church that was affected by divisions among the members?
  - a. How does Paul see observing Communion in a healthy way, a 'worthy' way, an antidote to divisive behavior and the attitudes underlying that behavior?
  - b. Does this change at all how you view the meaning and/or practice of Communion for yourself? If so, what are those changes and how can you put them into practice for the next time you observe Communion?
4. The poor in the Corinthian church were not able to participate fully in this ritual of Communion (Lord's Supper). How might our/your church be discriminating against people with a divisive spirit?
  - a. If you see/sense something, speak to an Elder or pastor about this.
